Marital Blessings!

Blessed are the husband and wife who continue to be affectionate, considerate, and loving after the wedding bells have ceased ringing (Eph. 5:23-25).

Blessed are the husband and wife who are polite and courteous to one another as they are to their friends (Rom. 12:10).

Blessed are they that have a sense of humor, for this attribute will be a handy shock absorber (Proverbs 17:22).

Blessed are the married couples who abstain from alcoholic beverages which wreck far more homes than recognized (Proverbs 20:1).

Blessed are they who love their mates more than any other person in the world, and who joyfully fulfill their marriage vow of a lifetime of fidelity (Eccl. 9:9).

Blessed are those mates who never speak loudly to each other and who make their home a place “where seldom is heard a discouraging word” (1 Peter 3:1,7).

Blessed are they who attain parenthood, for children are a heritage of the Lord (Psalm 127:1-5).

Blessed are they who remember to thank God for their food before they partake of it, and who set aside some time each day for reading the Bible and prayer (1 Tim. 4:3; 2 Tim 2:15).

Blessed are the husband and wife who faithfully attend the worship services of the church (Heb. 10:25).

Blessed are the couple who totally dedicate their lives and home to Christ!

On The Lighter Side.....:)

The children begged for a hamster and after the vows that they would care for it, they got one. They named it "Danny." Two months later, when mom found herself responsible for the creature, she located a prospective new home for it. The children took the news of Danny's imminent departure quiet well, though one of them remarked, "He's been around here a long time. We'll miss him." "Yes," Mom replied, "but he's too much work for one person, and since I am that one person, I say he goes." Another child said, "Well, maybe if he wouldn't eat so much and wouldn't be so messy, we could keep him." But Mom was firm, "It's time to take Danny to his new home. Go and get his cage" With one voice in tearful outrage, the children shouted, DANNY? We thought you said "DADDY!"
